

Snowflake Maker
Flake it your own way
Terms and Conditions

1. The buyer is strongly urged to listen to previous Snowflake Maker songs and compositions to have an idea of the kind of music that they write.
2. The song may incorporate elements or samples from other songs/ films etc.
3. The song may just be totally Snowflake Maker material.
4. The song may include words, be sung or be instrumental.
5. Snowflake Maker may use guest artists to record vocals. This will be at no extra cost to the buyer.
6. The final song/ composition remain the property of Snowflake Maker.
7. The final song/ composition may be used by the buyer in private or at private parties/ gatherings etc. but may not be used for professional reasons.
8. Snowflake Maker may use the final song/ composition as part of their continuing catalogue of music.
9. No song can be used or published without the permission of Snowflake Maker.
10. A song/ composition may include samples form copyrighted material therefore if the buyer wishes to release the song/ composition this may infringe copyright law.
11. No song/ composition shall be defamatory about an individual, group or organisation.
12. The buyer is strongly recommended to give a date when the song/ composition is required for.
13. Snowflake Maker aims to have a song/ composition completed within 30 days, as this is an artistic process, this may take longer. Snowflake Maker will notify the buyer if this is the case.

14. There is no guarantee what the final song/composition may sound like at the end. It may be a ballad, dance, chill out or a different style.
15. Snowflake Maker will endeavour to consider your preferred style.
16. Snowflake Maker may produce several versions of the same song for you at no extra cost. The buyer then can choose one or all of them to be put onto CD or a vinyl record (7" or 12") or mp3 file.
17. Songs/ compositions produced onto vinyl dub plate will add an extra cost for the buyer. This process will also involve extra time as this process uses a third party organisation. A quote can be given beforehand.
18. Every effort will be made to make sure the final song/ composition is a personal experience for the buyer.